Dear Mme. Marie,

Could you please confirm the balance in our checking, savings and U.S. Dollar accounts?

Also, last spring we spoke about some charges made because of a negative balance in our checking account caused by a mistake by the bank in transferring funds from our savings account to our checking account. Could you please verify that the charges have been returned to our account as you indicated?

Finally, I tried to send this message by E-mail, but could not do so. What is your correct e-mail address?

Thank you very much.

Sincerely,

Andrew E. Furer
